NO. 002 THE NEW EXPERIENTIAL ECONOMY

Two impossible categories are already owned. The concert is still open.

Only one is still unclaimed.

THE IMPOSSIBLE VENUE

Sphere

A $2.3 billion structure where the building itself is the show.

THE IMPOSSIBLE IMMERSION

Disneyland

Alternate worlds without a fixed path or runtime. Immersion as mass entertainment.

THE IMPOSSIBLE CONCERT

Impossible Moments

A living performance from a moment in time that no longer exists.

NO. 003 THE GENESIS · STOCKHOLM 2022

ABBA Voyage didn't prove a model. It revealed a category.

Four artists in their late seventies appeared as their younger selves. The audience knew. They did not care. For ninety minutes, it was 1977 again.

$135M

Annual revenue

ABBA proved audiences will pay for time travel.

NO. 004 INFRASTRUCTURE

Rights. ILM. A venue built for resurrection.

01 - Rights

Name, Image & Likeness

Exclusive NIL rights to culture's most iconic figures. Once secured, no one else can build the same night.

02 - ILM

Powered by ILM

The team behind ABBA Voyage, with four decades of digital human craft and cinematic illusion.

03 - Venue

Custom 3,000-Seat Venue

A 3,000-seat room engineered for 360° production and life-like digital avatars on stage.

“Real world assets that AI cannot easily replicate or disintermediate. That conviction has only strengthened.”

— BARRY DILLER

A rights-backed, purpose-built entertainment asset on the Las Vegas Strip cannot be replicated at home or on a screen.

Concert pricing. Film economics.

Premium tickets, repeatable showtimes, permanent IP.

OPERATING ASSUMPTIONS

$41.2M to Secure the Foundation.

No. 01

LAND

3-acre Las Vegas Strip site, owned outright at close.

No. 02

RIGHTS

Initial talent advances for artist NIL rights and likeness.

No. 03

BUILD

Design, technology, lender engagement, and operating overhead.

The first tranche buys the asset first, then attaches the upside.

It is a real estate acquisition with meaningful operating upside attached.

A night that cannot happen.
And yet, there it is.
